Birth, Marriage, Divorce, & Death Certificates Available at Your Local Health Department

Birth, Marriage, and Divorce Certificates:

♦ Certified copies of these certificates are available at all local health departments if the birth, marriage, or divorce occurred in Virginia.

Death Certificates:

♦ Death certificates can be filed, and certified copies can be obtained, at any health department in Virginia, regardless of where the death occurred.

♦ If it's less than 30 days since the filing of the death, you can only get a copy of the death certificate from the city/county where it was originally filed.

♦ Certified copies are available upon request to eligible people.

Who Can Get Copies of Birth, Marriage, Divorce, and Death Certificates:

♦ Only immediate family members (mother, father, current spouse, husband, wife, child, brother, sister, or grandparents) can get copies of birth, marriage, death, and divorce certificates, and they must provide a valid ID.

♦ Legal guardians must provide custody papers in order to get a certificate.

♦ Aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws, former spouses, etc. cannot get any copies.

Fees for All Certificates:

♦ $12 for each certificate and/or search of a vital record.

♦ Cash, check, money orders, VISA, or MasterCard accepted.
