

NELSON COUNTY RECREATION FOUNDATION APPLICATION FORM

Subject: NCR Foundation Interest Application

Nelson County is seeking interested individuals to serve as Board of Directors on the newly created Nelson County Recreation Foundation. The foundation will operate as an independent not-for-profit entity, working directly in partnership with Nelson County Parks and Recreation to leverage private funding in support of programming, events, and facilities. Directors will be approved for appointment by the Board of Supervisors. Directors will be voting members of the Foundation and serve an initial two-year or three-year term followed by two-year terms beyond the initial appointment.

Interested individuals should complete the following questions stating their desire to be appointed to the inaugural board of the Nelson County Recreation Foundation.

Be sure to include your correct contact information including mailing address, phone and email. Applications will be reviewed and evaluated by Nelson County Parks and Recreation staff and Nelson County Administration before making recommendations for consideration of appointment to the Nelson County Board of Supervisors.
