What are the objectives of the class?

A list of skills, knowledge and abilities the student can expect to learn by participating in your class.

Please describe the program unit plan for your class.

A detailed outline of objectives, skills, and or abilities and the order you plan to present them throughout the class sessions. It should indicate the best progression of skills and the order of instruction to allow the student to build his/her abilities upon the previous lesson.

Write a brief brochure description of the class you will instruct.

Write a sample of what you would like to see appear in the NCPRD Activity Guide or newspaper. It should include the price of the class, how many class meetings, materials needed and supply fees if applicable. Most importantly, include the class objectives so our participants will know what to expect to gain as participant in your class.

List your qualifications and experience:
